

FedEx Kinko's is a chain of stores that provide printing, copying, and binding services. Many FedEx Kinko's stores also provide video conferencing facilities. The primary clientele consists of small business and corporate clients. There are more than 1800 centers in Asia, Australia, Europe, Middle East and America. The company was founded in 1970. In February 2004 Kinko's was bought by FedEx for $2.4 billion and is now known as FedEx Kinko's Office and Print Centres.

When you want to create outstanding documents and finish them with distinction, trust 30 years of document expertise. With professional, high-quality black & white and color copying, digital prints, finishing Printing Posters, signs and banners and photo quality prints from your traditional digital media, we can give you what you expect – the best. Each FedEx Kinko's location is designed with your copying and printing needs in mind, offering both a self-service and a full-service area.
