General Claims Procedure

The claims handling procedure for this Policy are as below:

1. Written notice of death/illness which could result in a claim being made under the Policy must be given to the Company immediately.
2. Such notification, apart from stating name of the Insured Member in respect of whom the claim is reported, should provide basic details including date of death/ accident/sickness and the type of benefit claimed.

The Policyholder will, at the request of the Company:-

- (a) Supply to the Company such information concerning Insured Borrowers and the Agreement entered in to by the Insured Borrowers and the Policyholder as may reasonably be required by the Company.
- (b) Provide the Company with the relevant records of the Policyholder concerning Insured Borrowers as the Company may reasonably require for the purposes of administration by the Company of the insurance hereby agreed to be provided and the determination of future premium rates.

1. Upon receipt of Claim Notification, the Company shall:
 - I. Register the claim and allocate a claim number, to be quoted in all subsequent communications relating to that claim.
 - II. Advise the claim number to the Insured Member and request documentation considered necessary and reasonable for processing of the claim.
2. Upon receipt of the above, the corresponding claim form complete in all respects shall be submitted to the Company together with all supporting documents requested.

3. Upon receipt of the documented claim from the Insured, the Company shall advise any further documentation required to substantiate the claim or process the claim for settlement.

- I. Upon happening of an event giving rise to a claim under this Policy, the Policyholder shall give written notice to the Company but not later than 90 days from the Date of Event.
- II. Any and all communications related to a claim should be addressed to the following

- date of each month. A grace period of up to thirty (30) days is allowed for payment of all premiums due hereunder during which time this policy shall remain in force. If any premium is not paid within the said grace period the insurance shall become void at the end of such period but a pro-rata premium shall be payable for the insurance of such number of Cardholders up to the end of the grace period.

6. The Company or the Policyholder may terminate this policy by mailing to the other party a written notice of such intention at least 60 days before the termination date after its receipt by either party. The Policyholder shall then pay to the Company the full premium in respect of any Insured Borrower who (being eligible) hereunder prior to the date of termination and for whom the Policyholder has not yet paid premium as required under this policy.

7. The Company shall have the right to alter the premium rate by giving notice in writing to that effect to the Policyholder at least 45 days prior to the Policy Anniversary date.

8. The insurance cover shall terminate on the expiry date of the Policy. The failure of the Policyholder to pay the premium in respect of the Credit Cardholder subject to the provisions of premium payments, or the date on which the Credit Card Account becomes overdue by six months or a complaint is filed with authorities about non-payment of the dues or the Credit Cardholder is declared absconding or a judgement is entered in any court with respect to the debt hereunder.

9. In the event of a claim it must be notified to the Company as soon as possible but in any event the Policyholder shall give written notice not later than 90days after the occurrence of the incident giving rise to the claim, together with any supporting evidence required by the Company.

10. The Company shall have the right to require satisfactory evidence of age before any benefit is paid in respect of any claimant under this policy.
